

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

6th December, 1965.

Dear Mr Patten

I am commanded by The Queen to thank you for your letter and for your kindness in sending for Her Majesty's acceptance two signed copies of the book "Ookpik The Ogling Arctic Owl" by Dudley Copeland and illustrated by James Simpkins.

Her Majesty is delighted to accept these books for The Prince Andrew and The Prince Edward and she would be grateful if you could express her gratitude and appreciation to the author, the publisher and the Eskimo people of Fort Chimo on whose behalf the books are given.

Yours sincerely

Marina Tasker
